CORNER

Helpful tips to assist you in utilizing your RCI Points Membership!

I am sure most of you already have been made aware of the RCI "point value" placed on deposited weeks. This is being done so you can see how much banking early affects your trading value. The points don't differ much between week numbers it is more how far ahead you book. Example: the 4th of July week is the same as most weeks in summer. The way to increase these points is to get Silver Crown status back and bank early. This means when you stay at Fox Hills and get a comment card you must give us all 5's. If you have a problem during your stay please tell us at the resort not RCI, so we can fix the problem. Rating Fox Hills low on the comment card only affects your trading power.

Once again it is time to vote for a new board member. Doug MacMillan will be vacating a seat at the Annual Meeting. Thank you Doug for your service on the board. Following are the 4 members who are running for the vacant seat and a little about each one. Please note the ballot is printed at the bottom of this page and will need to be cut out and mailed or brought to our office.

Richard Isely: My name is Richard Isely. I'm married with 2 children. We live in Kiel, just 45 minutes from Fox Hills. I have been coming to Fox Hills for most of my life. My wife and I have been owners since 1988. I work as a Paramedic for Gold Cross Ambulance of the Fox Valley for the past 23 years. As a proud owner at Fox Hills, I know how important your investment is here at Fox Hills. We have made great strides with improvement at our Resort and my goal as a Board Member is to insure your getting the best return on your Vacation Dollars. Thanks, Richard Isely.

Patricia Dodge: Bachelors Degree in Management and Accounting; 23 years of Professional experience as a business manager, divisions manager, and co-director. Treasurer of League of Women Voters, past board member of Holy Innocents Parish, numerous volunteer and fund raising positions.

Todd M Tuecke: 23+ years in building and trades; specializing in custom cabinetry, counters, flooring and interior design. We have been coming here for 8+ years and are new owners because we love it here.

William Brennum: I am running for the board of directors because I would like to ensure that the resort continues to be the quality vacation destination for its owners and other guest that the board and resort management has built. The combination of quality amenities and reasonable maintenance fees set the resort apart from the other timeshares at which I own. My qualifications include 20 years work experience as a business and system analyst. I have served on a homeowners HOA and am currently the Secretary on the Board of Directors for the Olympia VOA resort in Oconomowoc.
